Re: Accurate Abstracts, LLC v. Havas Edge, LLC
Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-01994 (KM) (MAH)

Dear Judge McNulty:

Our firm represents Plaintiff Accurate Abstracts, LLC. This letter is respectfully submitted to request an adjournment of the return date of the pending motion to dismiss. Opposing counsel consents to this request.

The original motion return day was June 2, 2014. We subsequently obtained an automatic extension to the following motion day, June 16, 2014, by letter submitted pursuant to Local Civil Rule 7.1 (d) (5). We are now requesting an adjournment to the next available motion day, July 7, 2014.

In the event our request is granted we have agreed that our responsive papers shall be due by June 16, 2014. Opposing counsel's reply papers would be due on June 30, 2014.

The reason for this request is that I need to give the responsive papers the attention they require, have run into a time crunch due to the press of other business and have family commitments this upcoming Memorial Day weekend and the following weekend, which is my anniversary.

Opposing counsel has indicated his consent below. If the requested adjournment meets with your approval, please enter an Order granting the request.

1994-2014
